PREAMBLE

WHEREAS, the Dep-Ed Manila supervisors are respected as educational leaders and innovators and are considered as experts/consultants by their peers in the Dep-Ed NCR and the Department of Education;

WHEREAS, thus, in 1990, public school supervisors of Manila were granted by the City Government incentives/transportation allowance;

WHEREAS, the previous supervisors then were in charge of only two districts each, but presently almost all of them supervise all schools in the six districts of Manila, with some of them supervising both elementary and secondary teachers;

WHEREAS, the minimum fare for public transport then was only PhP 2.00 but now, it has risen to PhP 7.50 and is expected to increase again, however, in certain instances these supervisors are forced to take taxicabs in order to avoid Manila's traffic gridlocks just so that they can be on time in attending to important functions in schools or in the Dep-Ed NCR which is located in Pasig City;
