AN ORDINANCE RENAMING NEBRASKA STREET IN ERMITA JOSE BOCOBO STREET.

No: 399

WHEREAS, Dr. Jorge C. Bocobo, the educator, the author, the jurist, and diplomat spent 55 precious years of his life in the service of his country and his people;

WHEREAS, Dr. Jorge C. Bocobo etched an exemplary record of public service notably in the fields of education and the judiciary; scaling the ranks from a humble employee in the Executive Bureau (1907); Assistant Professor of Law in UP (1911); Dean of the State University's College of Law (1918); President of UP (1934 - 1939); Secretary of Education (1940 - 1943); Associate Justice of the Supreme Court during the occupation; to Chairman of the Code Commission (1946);

WHEREAS, as Chairman of the Code Commission, Dr. Jorge C. Bocobo was greatly responsible for the codification of the Philippine Laws;

WHEREAS, Dr. Jorge C. Bocobo, an internationally recognized authority on civil law added prestige and distinction to the Philippine representation in several international conferences on civil law abroad and as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, he penned some of the Tribunal's now famous decisions;

WHEREAS, ever imbued with the spirit of nationalism, Dean Jorge C. Bocobo spearheaded the revival of interest in Philippine folk dances, literature, arts and drama when he was President of the State University;

WHEREAS, Dr. Jorge C. Bocobo's strict code of morals easily placed him apart from the rest of public servants and earned for him an untarnished record of integrity, honor and distinction;

WHEREAS, as a fitting tribute to the memory of a man who contributed substantially to our culture and political maturity; to a man who served his country and people truly and well, a public street be now named after the late Dr. Jorge C. Bocobo: Now, therefore

Be it ordained by the Municipal Board of the City of Manila, that:
