

PROVIDED, That when any hotel, motel or lodging house is conducted with a dancing pavillon, there shall be paid an additional license fee of one thousand two hundred pesos per annum by such hotel, motel or lodging house.

SEC. 3. In addition to the license fee hereinabove provided, there shall be collected by the owner and/or operator of every hotel, motel or lodging house a fee as additional municipal tax on the total rent paid for every room therein occupied by guests for lodging purposes in an amount equivalent to five per centum (5%) of such rent including service charge. For this purpose, the hotel, motel or lodging house owner and/or operator or his authorized representative is hereby required to turn over to the City Treasurer the five per centum (5%) additional municipal tax thereby collected within twenty-five (25) days after the end of every quarter.

SEC. 4. Definition. - Hotel, Motel and Lodging House. - A hotel within the meaning of this ordinance shall be deemed to include any house or building or portion thereof in which any person or persons may be regularly harbored or received as transients or guests. A hotel shall be considered a living quarter and shall have the privilege to accept any number of guests and to serve food to the guests or customers therein.

A motel within the meaning of this ordinance shall be deemed to include any house or building or portion thereof in which any person or persons may be regularly harbored or received as transients or guests and which is provided with a common enclosed garage or individual enclosed garages where such transients or guests may park their motor vehicles.

Lodging house within the meaning of this ordinance shall be held to include any house or building or portion thereof in which any person or persons may be regularly harbored or received as transients for compensation. Taverns or inns shall be considered as lodging houses.

SEC. 5. Repealing Clause. - All existing ordinances governing operation of hotels, motels or lodging houses are hereby repealed.

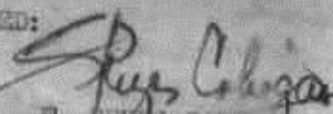

SEC. 6. Penalty. - Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of two hundred pesos (P200.00), and/or by imprisonment of not more than six (6) months at the discretion of the Court and in case of corporations, the President, the Vice-President or person responsible for the management of the same shall be held liable therefor.

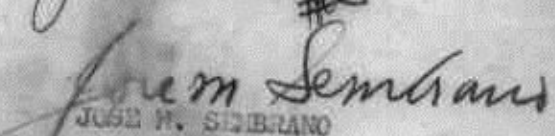

SEC. 7. Effectivity. - This ordinance shall take effect July 1, 1968.
