

AN ORDINANCE CHANGING THE NAME OF LIPA STREET, FROM LEGARDA TO M. ZARNSHAW, TO THAT OF "MARIANO F. JHOCSON" STREET.

WHEREAS, Don Mariano F. Jhocson, during his lifetime has devoted himself to the education of the youth as the founder of the first and oldest non-sectarian university in the Philippines;

WHEREAS, as an educator and scholar, Don Mariano F. Jhocson, has carved a pioneering path in education having founded the National University, thereby serving as an example to the youth the value of industry and education;

WHEREAS, despite the odds and hardships of pioneers in education, he had incessantly and relentlessly shown his deep concern for the interest and educational well-being of his fellow-men;

WHEREAS, this proposed ordinance is in keeping with the present renaissance of Filipinism by the people, one of which is the glorification of our people's history manifested in the naming of streets and historical places after Filipino patriots, heroes and men of great deeds;

WHEREAS, by renaming the said Lipa Street, which is adjacent to the great institution which he founded, to that of "Mariano F. Jhocson" Street, the Municipal Board shall be erecting a lasting monument to the memory of a great Filipino educator and at the same time it shall be responding to the desire of the hundreds of thousands of students and alumni of the National University as well as the civic leaders residing around the perimeter of the said institution: Now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the Municipal Board of the City of Manila, that:

SECTION 1. The name of Lipa Street in Sampaloc, from Legarda to M. Zarnshaw, is hereby changed to that of "Mariano F. Jhocson" Street.

SEC. 2. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its approval.

Enacted by the Municipal Board of Manila at its regular session today, July 3, 1962.

Approved, July 10, 1962

APPROVED:

ANTONIO F. VILLARIN
Mayor
City of Manila

[Signature]
HERNANDO A. ASTORGA
Acting Vice-Mayor and
Presiding Officer, Municipal Board

ATTEST:

BERNARD P. MARALU
Secretary to the Mayor

[Signature]
FRANCO RIVERA
Secretary, Municipal Board