WHEREAS, Jose Warren Villa was born on November 11, 1970 in Manila, Philippines and served as Vice-Mayor of the City of San Juan, a first class highly urbanized city in the National Capital Region known historically as the site of the first battle of the Katipunan, the organization which led to the 1896 Philippine Revolution against the Spanish Empire;

WHEREAS, he was first elected as Vice-Mayor in 2016, re-elected in 2019 and again, in 2022 and also served as Public Relations Officer of the Vice-Mayors' League of the Philippines-National Capital Region;

WHEREAS, as the Vice-Mayor and Presiding Officer of the Sangguniang Panlungsod of San Juan City, he was a dotting example of a public servant and a remarkable member of the society, credited in his honor several landmark legislations passed by the council during his tenure;

WHEREAS, the City Council of Manila is deeply saddened about the sudden death of the San Juan Vice-Mayor Villa. His death is a great loss not only to his immediate family and friends, but to everyone who have known him, for he was not only a devoted and loving husband and father but also a genial, benevolent and caring leader to his constituents;

WHEREAS, Vice-Mayor Villa had gone ahead to meet his Creator, but his life on earth will not be counted by years, but by the memories he had left behind in the hearts of those who knew him well: NOW, THEREFORE, be it

RESOLVED, by the City Council of Manila to express, as it hereby expresses deepest sympathy and condolences to the bereaved family of the Honorable Vice-Mayor, Jose Warren Villa of the Local Government of San Juan City who passed away on June 18, 2023 at the age of 52.
