

AN ORDINANCE RENAMING ISAAC PERAL STREET, FROM DEWEY BOULEVARD TO CANONIGO STREET TO "UNITED NATIONS AVENUE".

WHEREAS, the United Nations, the last remaining hope of mankind for a lasting world peace, will celebrate its 17th anniversary on October 24, 1962;

WHEREAS, although it is an admitted fact that the United Nations has achieved so much for the welfare of mankind; particularly with respect to the preservation and maintenance of world peace, it is also true that there is a need for continued vigilance among its member countries of the wonderful things it has done, is doing and will continue to do for them;

WHEREAS, the different organs of the United Nations and its family of specialized agencies have, through the years, built in the Philippines an institution of knowledge and experience offering the highest guarantee of international understanding and cooperation;

WHEREAS, in the economic growth of our country, these different agencies of the United Nations have provided us with much needed assistance without which it would have been impossible for the Philippines to achieve what it is today;

WHEREAS, the World Health Organization (WHO) building where all the aforementioned United Nations specialized agencies are housed, is situated along Isaac Peral Street;

WHEREAS, as a fitting tribute to the United Nations and its specialized agencies for the splendid work they have performed for the Philippines in general and for the City of Manila, in particular, it is the consensus of the city government that Isaac Peral Street should be named "United Nations Avenue"; Now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the Municipal Board of the City of Manila, that:

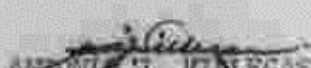

SECTION 1. Isaac Peral Street, from Dewey Boulevard to Canonigo Street, is hereby renamed "United Nations Avenue".

SEC. 2. This ordinance shall take effect upon its approval.

Enacted by the Municipal Board of the City of Manila at its regular session today, October 30, 1962.

Approved by His Honor, the Mayor on November 15, 1962.
