Majority Floor Leader

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) is the oldest athletic association in the country founded in 1924. The Board and the Committee are composed of representatives of the eight member schools. The NCAA has eleven (11) sports categories that the association sponsors, divided into the juniors division for high school students and the senior division for college students.

With the 99th season of the NCAA being hosted by the Jose Rizal University, comes the responsibility of bearing the fees and taxes to be paid to ensure the successful implementation of the competition and provide a venue for camaraderie and sportsmanship among Filipino athletes of all ages.

Francisco P. Gusi, Jr., Chairman of the 99th Season of the NCAA for the Volleyball tournament, addressed to the Public Recreations Bureau, the association is requesting for the exemption of payment of amusement tax for the usage of the San Andres Sports Complex, located at Malate, Manila, subject to the approval of the City Council of Manila.

In the spirit of supporting such activities, the city shall continuously seek ways to be a venue for activities that enrich the physical and psychological capacity of the students of the city, thus, shall therefore pass an Ordinance granting the request of the same.

HON. ERNESTO C. ISIP, JR.
Councilor, Third District
Manila

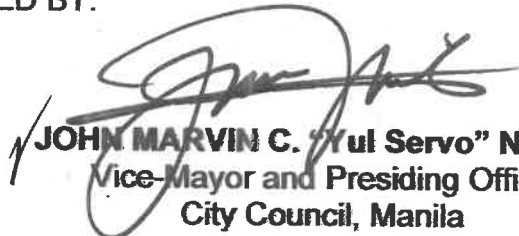

Be it ordained by the City Council of Manila, in session assembled, THAT:
