EXPLANATORY NOTE

The City of Manila, by virtue of its commitment to uphold the mandate of the 1987 Philippine Constitution to protect and promote the physical, moral, spiritual, intellectual and social well-being of its youth, operates two (2) public higher education institutions. The Dalubhasaan ng Maynila (City College of Manila) now known as the Universidad de Manila 1995 through Ordinance No. 7885 and the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila (PLM) by virtue of Republic Act No. 4196 in 1965.

The Universidad de Manila and Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila are established, funded and run by the City of Manila, with the primary vision to provide free education to the Manileño youth seeking to pursue further education without straining their limited financial resources.

Both premier universities in the City of Manila have produced graduates that have become significant contributors to nation building, bearing the ideals and aspirations of every Manileño.

In view of the foregoing the passage of this Ordinance is earnestly sought.

PAMELA "Fa" G. FUGOSO-PASCUAL
Councillor, Third District
Manila

Be it ordained by the City Council of Manila, in session assembled, THAT:

SECTION 1. Short. Title. – This Ordinance shall be known as "Taas-Noo Manileño Graduation Gift Ordinance of 2024".

SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy. – Pursuant to Section 9, Article II of the Constitution, it is the policy of the State, to promote a just and dynamic social order in fulfillment of the objective of poverty alleviation, national prosperity, and independence through policies that provide adequate social services, full employment, a rising standard of living, and improved quality of life for all citizens.

Similarly, in accordance with the said constitutional provision, the City Government of Manila recognizes the vital role of the youth in society and nation-building; such recognition shall be the backbone of the promotion and protection of the physical, moral, spiritual, intellectual and social well-being of the youth.

In pursuance of the welfare of the youth and the fulfillment of its duties to its citizens, the City of Manila decided to provide incentives to graduates from the tertiary-level educational institutions, namely: the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila and the Universidad de Manila.

SEC. 3. Beneficiary of this Ordinance. – The official graduates from the academic year 2023-2024 and onwards of the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila and Universidad de Manila.
