ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

No less than the paramount law of the land, the 1987 Constitution under Article XIII, Section 11 thereof, specifically provides that the state shall adopt an integrated and comprehensive approach to health development which shall endeavor to make essential goods, health and other social services available to all the people at affordable cost and prioritizing the elderly, disabled, women and children.

The aforesaid provision of the Constitution treats the elderly and disabled as similarly situated in terms of being afforded essential goods, health and other social services in accordance with their needs.

Similar to elderly citizens, it is the valued policy of the State to protect the disabled by rehabilitating them so they can be productive citizens upon their integration to the mainstream society.

The rights of senior citizens and disabled persons should be recognized and must be the primordial concern of the City Government.

There is an imperative need to provide the senior citizens and disabled persons with a comprehensive health care and financial assistance to foster their capacity to attain a more meaningful and productive lifestyle. However, due to fiscal inadequacy being experienced by the City Government of Manila, this current dispensation is constrained to revert back to the provisions as provided for in City Ordinance No. 8565 as amended by City Ordinance No. 8632.

In Section 458 (a) of Republic Act No. 7160 otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, the Sangguniang Panlungsod is empowered to approve legislation that shall provide for the care of its inhabitants particularly the elderly and the disabled.

The same Code empowers the City Government to adopt measures that will ensure the protection of the health, social and moral welfare of its inhabitants especially those in need.
